

UNDER THE SPIRES.

Where To Worship This Sabbath Day.

Dr. Nash Goes To Norfolk—Rev. Piner's Vacation—Bishop Dudley at Grace Church.

This beautiful Sabbath day—beautiful no matter what the weather may be—May Day, the pleasantest day in all the year, finds the people of Hopkinsville fortunately situated in having many places to worship God and return thanks for the blessings they enjoy. At all but two of the churches there will be the usual Sunday services and some of the meetings will be of more than ordinary interest. Below will be found information of interest to church people of all denominations:

Rev. W. K. Piner will fill his pulpit at the Methodist church at the usual hours.

Rev. Chas. H. Nash, of the Baptist church, will preach in the morning, at which time it will be announced whether there will be an evening service, as Dr. Nash is still somewhat enfeebled from his late illness.

Rev. H. D. Smith will preach at the Christian church, morning and evening, at the usual hours.

Rev. Dewitt, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will be in Princeton today installing a new pastor and there will be no services at his church.

Rev. Arthur Roberts will hold the usual services at the Universalist church, preaching morning and evening.

Rev. S. N. Vail is out of the city and there will be no preaching at the First Presbyterian church, but the usual Sunday School will be held at 9:30 o'clock.

BISHOP DUDLEY'S VISIT.

He Will Deliver a Sermon at Grace Church This Morning.

Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley will fill the pulpit at Grace Episcopal church this morning and at the conclusion of the sermon a class will be confirmed. The periodical visits of this eminent ecclesiastic to this city are always events looked forward to with pleasure by people of all denominations. His consecration, his piety, the depth of his sympathy and the breadth of his learning all contribute to a character that is loved and admired here and elsewhere. The Bishop will be greeted by a large congregation. Bishop Dudley arrived in this city yesterday and is the guest of Rev. Robert Carter.

Miss Aday Belle Hardin, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. George E. Gary for several weeks, left yesterday for Russellville, where she will visit the family of Hon. John D. Orndoff before returning to her home at Bowling Green.

Mr. H. H. Bryant, formerly of Gracey, now an inspector on the Clarksville tobacco market, was in the city yesterday. He went from here to Gracey where he will spend several days on his farm.

Brushes any kind you want in WHITE WASH, SCRUB, BLACKING or CLOTHES and at prices lower than the lowest. W. T. COOPER & CO.

Waived Examination.

Leander McCutchen, the negro charged with attempted rape, waived his examining trial at Elkton and was returned to the Warren county jail for safe keeping.

To The Boys.

Mrs. Pusey, of Louisville, and Mrs. Gardner, of Bowling Green, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. C. S. Jarrett.

SALE OF BUCKNER ESTATE.

Brick Livery Stable Property Brings $3,420.

The sale of the real estate property of the late L. L. Buckner took place yesterday morning and was conducted by the administrator, Judge W. P. Winfree. Mr. J. E. Claiborne officiated as auctioneer. The sale in detail follows:

Brick livery stable, corner Tenth and Virginia streets, S. G. Buckner, $3,420. Frame stable on Tenth street between Virginia and Liberty, Gus Bradshaw, $715. Cottage and lot of one acre on South Virginia street, Edgar Bradshaw, $630. Eight lots on South Virginia street, Dr. J. B. Jackson, $370. Home place, including twenty acres of land on Palmyra road one mile south of the city, Miss Sue Buckner, $1,075.

WITH AN IRON POKER.

A Negro Man Strikes a Woman, Knocking Her Senseless.

Judge Cansler issued a warrant yesterday against John Caldwell, colored, charging him with striking with intent to kill.

On the Nick Edmunds farm, two miles west of Gracey, Saturday morning, Caldwell became involved in a quarrel with a negro woman named Ellen McCarty. Seizing a heavy iron poker, Caldwell struck the woman a terrific blow across the head. She sank down senseless and bleeding at his feet. It is thought that her injury is serious.

The warrant was placed in an officer's hands for execution, but Caldwell had not been captured at a late hour last night.

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS.

Dr. Nash Leaves To-Morrow For the Southern Baptist Convention.

Rev. Chas. H. Nash, Rev. W. L. Payton and Prof. Wm. H. Harrison, delegates from the Hopkinsville Baptist church, will leave to-morrow for Norfolk, Va., to attend the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention next Thursday. That city is the boyhood home of Dr. Nash and he will make a visit to his old home for the first time in many years. He will make an address on one day of the convention, which will be in session a week.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Company Begins Operation Here Monday.

Its Vast System Covers All The Principal Cities of the Country.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company will have an office in operation in this city within a very few days. For several months past workmen have been busy erecting lines from Evansville and Hopkinsville along the route of the Illinois Central railroad. This work is now completed and all that remains is to establish the office and begin business.

One of the company's agents was in the city yesterday to perfect final arrangements for operations. He said that he thought his company would open its office to-morrow. They will begin operations in the Illinois Central freight depot until further arrangements are made.

This system is connected by wire with all of the principal cities of the United States and Canada. The service is thoroughly efficient and its agents unusually courteous and polite. The lines have been gradually extended until the entire country is in touch through its wires.

The people of Hopkinsville are to be congratulated upon the entrance to this city of the Postal system.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. John S. Miller, of Pembroke, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. A. Nesbit and son, of Madisonville, are in the city.

Upshaw Buckner, of Bolivar, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Will Feland, of Henderson is visiting his father's family in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jesup, of Fairview, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. T. L. Metcalfe returned Friday after a business visit to Chicago.

Mr. Robt. Fletcher, the popular Louisville drummer, spent Saturday in the city.

Capt. Darwin Bell, of Howell, is visiting the family of Dr. M. W. Williams.

Mr. W. H. Hill, of Bainbridge, was one of the visitors in the city Saturday.

Mr. Edward R. Tandy, of Clarksville, is spending the day with friends and relatives here.

Miss Belle Moore has returned after a pleasant stay of a week with relatives in the country.

Mr. Vernon D. Leek, the talented editor of the Guthrie Courier, spent Saturday in the city.

'Squire Tom Barker, of Longview, came in yesterday to learn the latest war news.

Mrs. Mary Pitt, of Adams Station, Tenn., is visiting her grandson, Mr. J. Matt Adams.

Dr. J. A. Southall and wife, of Pee Dee, were among the numerous visitors to the city yesterday.

Mr. Jesse Peden, one of the most prominent farmers of the Oak Grove vicinity, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Margie Glass, of the Church Hill vicinity, spent yesterday with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McPherson.

Mr. John Clardy, of Gracey, will leave Monday for Texas to be absent a week looking to his property interests in the Lone Star State.

Mr. Otho H. Graves, of the Louisville Tobacco Board, formerly a popular citizen of this county, is visiting relatives and mingling with old friends in the city.

Mr. John Orr left yesterday for Fort Smith, Ark. where he will superintend the erection of a handsome building for Mr. T. L. Metcalfe.

Mr. James Cabaniss, of Evansville, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to spend Sunday with his wife, who is the guest of Miss Nanie Byars, on South Main street.

Col. Frank B. Richardson, representing the Shapleigh Hardware Co., was mingling with old friends in the city Saturday. He will spend to-day with his family in Pembroke.

IN THE CITY COURT.

The City Collects One Hundred Dollars In License From Peddlers.

The City Treasury is richer by $100 than it was Thursday. This is because the agents of a couple of firms that should know better, and do know better, have persisted in violating the ordinance relating to peddler's license.

John B. Wills and H. H. Warren were the representatives of Hunter & Co., of Nashville. As stated in the KENTUCKIAN Friday they were arrested and gave bond for their appearance. They telephoned for Hunter who came over and paid the license fee of $50. It may be remarked here that the city had trouble with this same firm last year. A man named Farnsworth who was retailing articles in the city without license was arrested at the same time as Wells and Warren. He likewise paid a license of $50 very reluctantly. Mr. E. G. Buffalo is under arrest for the same offense and his trial is set for Monday.

The following cases were disposed of in the City Court yesterday:

Lizzie Barnett, disorderly conduct, fined $5.00 and costs.

Wm. Brasher, disorderly conduct, $5.00 and costs.

Wesley Johnson, breach of peace, $1.00 and costs.

Nick Munford, fast riding, $1.00 and cost.

School Trustees Were Tardy.

Miss McDaniel, County School Superintendent, was very busy Saturday receiving the reports from the school census of the county. The work was incomplete, but enough reports were in to indicate that last year's figures of 11,000 would be slightly increased. After May 1st there is a penalty imposed upon those Trustees who failed to file their reports. A good many of them were caught, as that date has already arrived.

The school population indicates that the county, on a basis of four to one, now has about 44,000 inhabitants.

Will Marry To-Night.

At the Universalist church this evening Mr. H. Holmes and Miss Fanny Patterson will be married. The pastor, Rev. Arthur Roberts, will pronounce the ceremony. Mr. Holmes is from Minnesota and is a widower of large means who became acquainted with Miss Patterson by letter. A genuine love match was developed through a long correspondence. He disposed of his interest in Minnesota and came to this city, which will be the future home of himself and bride. Miss Patterson is a lady of many attractions, both personal and mental, and has a host of friends in the city.

Saloon Moved.

An order was made in the County Court yesterday granting Elkins & Bivens the right to remove their saloon from Seventh street to the Hord block, on Virginia street, between Fifth and Sixth streets.
